Online Marketing Manager / Practice Lead, Shopping Channels July 2012 - September 2014 (2 years 3 months)

Greater Seattle Area

eCommerce account executive managing a book of IR-500 clients. I provide strategy, implementation, and analytics of internet marketing plans. Expert user of Mercent's award winning SaaS platform to enable my clients to be visible, competitive and profitable wherever consumers shop online. I strive to exceed expectations and wow my clients as well as building lasting relationships.

The Manager role enables me to work closely and assist with client's budgets, overall strategy, promotions, analytics and product data. I leverage my knowledge to improve data and enable my client's success on comparison shopping engines, online marketplaces and product listing ads.

The Practice Lead role enables me to grow relationships with agency partners such as Amazon, PriceGrabber and eBay Commerce Network to name a few. It also enables me to help the broader performance team by establishing best practices and being a source of information.

I consistently achieve top client satisfaction scores and revenue growth by developing a deep understanding of the client's needs and a dedication to maintaining a high level of communication.

Marketing Specialist

October 2011 - July 2012 (10 months)

Greater Seattle Area

In this role I supported multiple account managers and multiple accounts. The main functions were: marketing strategy, analysis, planning, product feed optimization and reporting.

I was proud of the progress I was able to make on streamlining processes and report creation. I set a high bar of performance in this role and helped the role progress into what it is today.

Chamberlin Productions

Event Marketing Intern

January 2010 - May 2010 (5 months)

Bozeman, MT

This was a great internship that enabled me to get my hands dirty in many areas of putting on a large event. I performed many duties including event marketing, event production, sponsor liaison, volunteer coordination and guerrilla marketing.

The biggest lesson I took away from this was how to deal with chaos and when direction is needed, to step up and lead by example. At the end of our big multi-day concert/ski competition event with headliners such as Bassnectar and GZA, the stage and scaffolding for the ski jump needed to be taken down. We were quickly losing people to help with this since it was after midnight. I took on the responsibility of getting this taken care of. People recognized the effort and the direction and jumped in to get the job done before the rental company came to pick everything up in the morning.

Lincoln Electric Cooperative

Assistant Electrical Engineer

January 2004 - November 2007 (3 years 11 months)

Eureka, MT

In this role I was able to develop a good understanding of how public electricity functions. I performed many duties including GPS mapping of the power system, map creation, underground power systems design and layout, new client setup and cost bidding, as well as CAD design.

I really enjoyed this job as it allowed me to be creative and help people get electricity to their new or changing homes and businesses. This was a great opportunity to get me excited about technology and gives me a deeper understanding and appreciation than most people about what it takes to do the simple things in life like watching TV.
